RACE APPRAISAL

ANALYSIS: This is a rather odd affair as the top horses on paper exit a 1-2 finish for $6,250 at Fairplex Park Sept 20. Kiss the Cooke wound 2nd as the odds-on choice when given a rather suspicious drop in class that day. She beat this kind at Del Mar and now goes for Kristin Mulhall, who has had nine of her last 17 claims finish in the Exacta in their first start for her. However, she figures to be busy coping with speedy route-to-sprint type Saint's Crown. That one has been fading around two turns, but may prove the one to collar here. Paddlin Mud ran down 'Cooke Sept 20 and do it again. Santiago Reyes returns and he's won twice with her now. Let's assume that that last one was not a fluke. Red Alarm is back sprinting and is capable of rallying from far back. She's the longshot threat. No Cream or Sugar has finished 2nd in two straight and is exotics material again. Analysis by Rick Lochner

CLOSERS: Fastest in the stretch in recent races at or near this distance have been: Red Alarm :30.0 - No Cream or Sugar :30.5 - Paddlin Mud :30.7

HORSE COMMENTS

Dixie Hawks found $5,000 claimers to her liking at Fresno Oct 15, but still couldn't win and doesn't have the numbers to impact this group.

Paddlin Mud is from the same barn as Dixie Hawks and exits a highly-rated win over $6,250 claimers at Fairplex Park. That race represented a big rebound and puts her atop the charting. Can she repeat? Perhaps and she should get a good trip behind Saint's Crown. She's a contender and has won twice under Santiago Reyes.

No Cream Or Sugar was second best for $5,000 Sept 24 and was second best again when stepped up to this level Oct 17. She figures in the hunt and is improving based on her numbers trend. She's exotics material again.

Kiss the Cooke set the pace only to be outfinished by Paddlin Mud when claimed for $6,250 Sept 20. Mullhall has a good record off the claim and this one did win for $10,000 at Del Mar Aug 7. However, that win make that Sept 20 class drop ultra suspicious. She's got dangerous speed, but she likely has real problems.

Kimmy'sklassylady has been outrun in two starts since being dropped in for this tag at Del Mar. She wears front wraps on occasion and seems off form.

Red Alarm beat $10,000 sophs at the L.A. County Fair Sept 27 and that rallying win earned a decent mark, as did her previous try there for $20,000. She ran OK vs. soph routers when stretched out Sept 9 and is a late threat with this return to the sprint game.

Saint's Crown has struggled thru the stretch since knocking off softer $12,500 NW2 types July 12. She retains her speed, though, and plots as the one to catch today. Perhaps the return to sprinting will help.

Dona Mary doesn't earn very good numbers, but fits on class off her close-up 4th with this kind Oct 9. Another minor award may be her limit.
