Notes

Oak Tree ended its 41st season Sunday buoyed by the two-day Breeders' Cup World Championships on Nov. 6-7, which drew a total of 96,496 fans on-track, an increase of 17% over 2008. Zenyatta's devastating win against males in Saturday's $5 million Breeders' Cup Classic climaxed the two days of superb international racing and resulted in her sweep of several honors in the annual poll of media covering the Oak Tree meeting, including Horse of the Meeting in a unanimous vote, best older horse and best older filly or mare. Her Classic victory was chosen top accomplishment of the season, and that race was named Race of the Meet...Bob Baffert topped the poll in the trainer category and was the meeting leader with an Oak Tree record 24 wins. Rafael Bejarano edged out Joel Rosario, 31-30, in the jockey race and was top rider in the poll. Christian Santiago Reyes was named best apprentice...Racing resumes at Santa Anita Park for a winter-spring meeting with the traditional opening day program on the day after Christmas, December 26.
